

NOTICE OF AGENCY RELATIONSHIP

When working with a real estate licensee in buying, selling, or leasing real estate, West Virginia Law requires that you be informed of whom the licensee is representing in the transaction. The licensee may represent the seller/lessor, the buyer/lessee, or both. The party represented by the licensee is known as the licensee's principal and as such, the licensee owes the principal the duty of utmost care, integrity, honesty, and loyalty.

Regardless of whom they represent, the licensee has the following duties to all consumers in any transaction:

- Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in the performance of the licensee's duties.
- A duty of honest and fair dealing and good faith.
- Must offer all property without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, blindness, or disability.
- Must promptly present all written offers to the owner.
- Provide a true, legible copy of every contract to each person signing the contract.

The licensee is not obligated to reveal to either party any confidential information obtained from the other party which does not involve the affirmative duties set forth above.

Should you desire to have a real estate licensee represent you as your agent, you should enter into a written contract that clearly establishes the obligations of both parties. If you have any questions about the roles and responsibilities of a real estate licensee, the licensee can provide more information upon your request.

In compliance with the West Virginia Real Estate License Act, all parties are hereby notified that:
